has successfully completed the HIGH5 strengths test
and has the following set of strengths

1

Coach

Coaches love discovering the potential in people and supporting others' personal growth. It's hard for them to accept when this potential is being wasted.

2

Self-Believer

Self-Believers are independent, self-sufficient people who inspire others with their confidence and certainty. They cannot stand when others tell them what to do or try to control their actions.

Problem Solver

Problem Solvers love uncovering flaws, diagnosing problems and coming up with solutions. It is difficult for them to simply sweep unresolved issues under the rug and keep going as if everything is fine.

Believer

Believers' actions are driven by core values that cannot be compromised at the expense of success. Believers get drained if their beliefs and values are questioned, or if they have to do something that goes against their principles.

5

Optimist

Optimists enjoy praising the good in people and are grateful for what they have. They find it difficult to be around those who constantly focus on the negative.
